Krampus Scavenger Hunt

Hudson, Ohio

Who is Krampus?

Krampus is a mythical folk creature who was thought to originate in Germany. He arrives every year on December 5th with Saint Nicholas. Saint Nicholas rewards all good children who behave, while Krampus threatens those who misbehave. The partnership between Saint Nicholas and Krampus is a wonderful holiday tradition for eastern European children!

Krampus Scavenger Hunt Instructions:

Solve the riddles to help you find hidden Krampus dolls in 10 store windows throughout North Main Street and the First & Main area.

Fill in all of the blanks with the name of the correct store. Complete your contact information section on the back.

Once completed, return this sheet to Destination Hudson at 27 E. Main St. (marked with a star on the map) by 4pm on Sunday, December 20th.

You could win a prize! A random drawing of 50 completed scavenger hunts will receive a prize by mail or special delivery!

Good luck and have fun!

1. Diamonds and rubies may be rare, but Krampus is sure to give you a scare!

2. Buy new glasses so you don't squint, don't expect Krampus to give you a hint!

3. Horses go nay and shoppers say yay, Krampus says you have to pay!

4. Krampus knows the wisest bird, but can he read? That's absurd!

5. When Krampus is shopping for sauces and spice, the variety here is oh-so-nice!

6. Picture perfect gifts, clothes, and home décor, Krampus says, "go buy some more!"

7. Need a rock, stone, or sign, Krampus likes this store's design

8. Said before a meal then a small street, Krampus wants another treat!

9. Wreaths and ribbons, buds in a vase, when Krampus seek beauty, this is the place!

10. Girls' clothing, jewelry, décor, and more, Krampus's sister shops at this store!
